Wellness Spa Hiring Licensed Massage Therapists

Pittsburgh, PA

Contact Name: Nikki Remic

Phone Number: 412-242-4220

Email: nikki@pghhealthandhealing.com

Join the team of therapists at the Pittsburgh Center for Complementary Health and Healing (PCCHH) that has been voted best spa, best wellness center, best massage & best massage therapist in Pittsburgh multiple times in our 17 years of business. We are hiring a reliable, grounded, intuitive and openhearted Licensed Massage Therapist who wants to be part of our gifted team of body workers and make a difference in the lives of their clients. We are looking for a highly skilled therapist who has the ability to blend a variety of massage modalities to meet the needs of a busy clientele with needs ranging from relaxation to specific therapeutic sessions. (Our clients are often repeat clients, who value bodywork as a part of their self care of body/mind/soul.) We customize all of our services, so the right candidate should have excellent customer service and communication skills to communicate with their clients and actively listen to be able to provide a session to meet the individual goals and needs of the clients. The ideal therapist has additional skills in hot stone, pregnancy massage and an intuitive connection in their mindful presence. Individuals should be team oriented, have a strong desire to make a positive difference in their client's lives, and enjoy working with a group of like-minded co-workers who are passionate about their career. "If you are someone who balances a sense of purpose in your work, enjoys connecting with clients who appreciate what you offer and have excellent hands on technique you may be an ideal therapist to join PCCHH! I am looking for a therapist(s) who enjoys offering a range of massage for clients who want deep tissue relief while also holding a grounded space for the deeper peace and relaxation that comes from mindful and present human connection. If you think that you are the perfect fit to work in this sort of intentional setting then I'm looking forward to helping your shine your light in this world!" Nikki Remic - Bannon / Owner We provide 30 minutes between clients to provide proper cleaning & disinfecting, office maintenance, recovery time, time to do a full intake process for new clients, and to help foster a calm and balanced experience for both clients and therapists. Therapists must be able to assist with general day to day tasks and office maintenance including opening and closing, computer skills, SOAP notes, and basic cleaning while maintaining a calm and professional demeanor. We have staggered availability starting late July 2023 with additional hours available late August. Tuesday-Saturday. You must be available to work Saturdays. We are busy with a list of regular clients looking to be covered along with a wait list, and strong reputation, so you won't just need to sit around and wait for clients to call. The company is founded and run by a massage therapist with over 24 years of experience, so you will have the opportunity to work for a business that is thriving as it cares about both an exceptional client experience and the longevity of the therapists.
